

PRELIMINARY SCIENTIFIC PROGRAMME
Thursday 2 September
0830–1015	Powhiri (45 mins) Welcome – Shirley Milligan and Terrie Hunt, Convenors and President of NZAOT (10 mins) Opening Address - Professor Alan Clarke, NZ Spinal Trust, Burwood Hospital, Christchurch (30 mins) Occupational Therapy Training 1952-55. Was it still valid after 50 years? Joan Davidson (20 mins)
1015	Morning Tea
1045	Changing the Frame: Through the Lens of Assessment. Anita Bundy, Professor, School of Occupation and Leisure Science, University of Sydney, Australia (90 mins)
1215	Lunch
1315	Managing Risks Roundtable Discussion: "Challenges to implementing models in mental health" Pam Schofield (60 mins)	Professional Responsibility The development of a Recommended Best Practice Protocol Glenn Nicholson (30 mins)	The Changing World A pilot study of the suitability of the PEDI to assess the long-term functional outcomes of children who have had pneumococcal meningitis Lynette Eaton (30 mins)	Innovation in Practice Innovations in Practice - Establishing a Seven Day Occupational Therapy Service Jane Flanagan (30 mins)
1345		An experience of the evidence-based practice process Terrie Hunt (30 mins)	The Changing World Interfacing conscious clinical reasoning with evidence-based practice in the changing world of special education Merolee Penman, Jill Ford and Carolyn Simmons Carlsson (60 mins)	Providing an effective ED service on a shoestring budget Rob Molyneux (30 mins)
1415	Transition from a senior occupational therapist in a rural community psychiatric service to the team clinical coordinator Stephanie Butchard (30 mins)	Carpe Diem - Professionalism and development of occupational therapy in New Zealand Robert Bull &amp; Alison Nelson (30 mins)		An innovative occupational therapy role Speaker to be advised
1445	Afternoon Tea
1515	Managing Risks A workplace risk - Burnout Leigh McCabe (90 mins)	Professional Responsibility Leadership in an Environment of Change: It's not just a 'management' thing Jennifer Wright-Brugman (90 mins)	The Changing World Interfacing conscious clinical reasoning with evidence-based practice in the changing world of special education (contd.) Merolee Penman (60 mins)	Innovation in Practice On road driving performance and dementia Kay Russell (30 mins)
1545				Spirituality in mental health for older persons Penny Wilson (30 Mins)
1615			Views of Disability Relevant to the NZ Context Questions for School Based Occupational Therapy Practice Jill Ford (30 mins)	Falls prevention - addressing this ongoing issue in Mid-Canterbury Carmen Tindall (30 mins)
1645	Issues Forum (45 mins)
1730	Opening of Trade Display

PRELIMINARY SCIENTIFIC PROGRAMME
Friday 3 rd September 2004
0700	NZAOT Annual General Meeting
0900	Topic to be confirmed Karen Jacobs, Clinical Professor, Sargent College of Health and Rehabilitation Science, Boston University, USA (90 mins)
1030	Morning Tea
1100	Frances Rutherford Lecture Award - Clare Hocking (90 mins)
1230	Lunch
1330	Managing Risks Occupational therapy and falls prevention: myth or reality? Fiona Mains & Jennifer Wright (90 mins)	Managing Risks The occupational functioning, roles and health status of male inpatients in forensic and general psychiatric rehabilitation Pam Schofield (30 mins)	Professional Responsibility Health professionals attitudes to activity for people with low back pain Diane Henare (30 mins)	The Changing World The interface between immigration and occupation: Implications for health Shoba Nayar (30 mins)	Innovation in Practice Ways of knowing: revisiting our understandings of visual perceptual deficits in children with disabilities Merrolee Penman (30 mins)
1400		The meaning of doing in recovery from mental illness Daniel Sutton (30 mins)	Introduction to the New Zealand Patient Handling Guidelines Janelle Aitken (30 mins)	Refugee &amp; Migrant Experiences in New Zealand Speaker from the Refugee Survivor Centre (60 mins)	The measurement properties of four visual perceptual instruments: Recommendations for their use in clinical settings Ted Brown (30 mins)
1430		Life after long term psychiatric hospitalization Janet Phare (30 mins)	Exploring supervision of occupational therapists in New Zealand Jackie Herkt (30 mins)		Sensory motor assessment of oral motor output in Speech Disordered (SD) and normal subjects Olwen Morgen (30 mins)
1500	Afternoon Tea
1530	Managing Risks Therapy versus custody - forensic occupational therapy in action Pen Kinney (30 mins)	Professional Responsibility The Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act - practical implications for occupational therapists Kitty Marshall (90 mins)	The Changing World Occupational therapy education & practice: Facing the future together Nancy Wright (90 mins)	Innovation in Practice Marketing & Innovation Karen Jacobs (90 mins)
1600	Pilot Project: Implications of Occupational Therapists providing English lessons to mental health users Millie Manase-Peak (30 mins)
1630	Childhood Anxiety: Occupational Disruption Ann Christie (30 mins)
1700	Special Interest Groups
1900	Conference Dinner

PRELIMINARY SCIENTIFIC PROGRAMME
Saturday 4 th September 2004
0900	Panel Discussion - Competence to Practice: the changing world of professional responsibility Representatives from the Schools of Occupational Therapy; New Zealand Occupational Therapy Registration Board; NZAOT; Employers; Unions and an occupational therapist will discuss with the audience the roles and responsibilities of each with respect to the HPCA Act. (60 mins)
1000	Morning Tea
1030	Participation, Independence, and Equity: Face to Face with a Changing World Elizabeth Townsend , Professor and Director, School of Occupational Therapy, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada (90 mins)
1200	Lunch
1300	Managing Risks 'A Time to Reflect': Caring for ourselves while caring for people in a changing world Anne Morgan and Barry Amer (60 mins)	Professional Responsibility Cultural competence: Is it sitting in your "too hard basket"? Terry Weblemoe (30 mins)	The Changing World Face to face with inclusion in Aotearoa/New Zealand schools Carolyn Simmons Carlsson (30 mins)	The Changing World The Accessible Journey - are New Zealand community facilities accessible? Sarah Hedger (30 mins)	Innovation in Practice Debate: "Occupational Therapists should extend their working hours to cover weekends and public holidays" Karen Pratt (60 mins)
1330		Getting published: Swimming with sharks or snorkeling with dolphins? Valerie Wright St Clair (30 mins)	The Shackled Heart: The experience of teacher aides supporting students with high needs in regular classrooms Chris Tutty (30 mins)	Fieldwork Education: The preparation of occupational therapy students for the current health care climate Linda Robertson (30 mins)
1400	Tea / Coffee Break
1415	Managing Risks 'A Time to Reflect': Caring for ourselves while caring for people in a changing world Anne Morgan (60 mins)	Professional Responsibility Getting published: Swimming with sharks or snorkeling with dolphins? Valerie Wright St Clair (60 mins)	The Changing World Healthy Computing with middle school students Karen Jacobs (60 mins)	The Changing World Transdisciplinary team assists participation Shonagh O'Hagan (30 mins)	Innovation in Practice Who defines a positive outcome? The development of a client directed service Karen Phipps (30 mins)
1445				Reasoning in multidisciplinary teams Linda Robertson (30 min)	Working in an emerging occupational therapy setting Bronwyn Thompson (30 mins)
1515	Mystery Closing Speaker				